The opportunity to participate in the Prizmah program for school counselors has been tremendous. For the past two years, learning with other school counselors, problem-solving, and gaining valuable insights have been paramount for me in my own work. The resources that Prizmah generates are valuable and timely. Prizmah is a community for me which is inspirational, motivational, educational, warm, and an integral part of my life and my work. It is so nice to know that I am not alone and am in the company of dedicated, compassionate counselors who care deeply about our schools, our Jewish communities, and one another.
