With thanks to BJE, Builders of Jewish Education, for its partnership in supporting Jewish day schools and yeshivas in the Los Angeles area.

Prizmah has been a wonderful resource of connection. We appreciate that all Day Schools and Yeshivot, of all sizes and observances, are united under one umbrella. It opens worlds for teachers, administrators and board members who otherwise might act in a siloed manner. During the pandemic this felt especially important, and we are looking forward to being together physically at the conference this coming winter.
